VENDOR AND VENDING VEHICLES GUIDELINES

For the purpose of managing a successful and coordinated event, the Central Avenue Betterment Association (event coordinator) sets forth the following guidelines and rules about approved vendors and vending vehicles that wish to participate in our event

1. Vending Spaces - The donations-based festival offers 10' X 10' vending spaces in Bethany
2. Park along Central Avenue, accepting pre-approved and registered vendors only.
3. Vendors - Any individual or business owner is welcome to sell items at our event within assigned vending spaces.
4. Vendors are approved by the event coordinator. NO UNAUTHORIZED/UNREGISTERED VENDORS ALLOWED.
5. NO UNAUTHORIZED SOLICITATIONS (handbills, sampling, giveaways, etc.)
6. Food vendor Booths must be available for installation and setup between 7 am and 11 am on the day of the event. Food Trucks can drive in on the day of the event, but must be in place by 10 am.
7. No vendor can sell food for under $4.00; No beverages can be sold for under $3.00.
8. During load-in, you will be able to drive a vehicle on the park grounds; however, all vehicles should be parked outside the park by 10:30 am. On street parking should be driven to the crossing streets.
9. Each vendor needs to provide its own trash can. Absolutely no trash or oil dumping on the premises. If your area is not left the way you found it, you will be responsible for damages. All material, tables, seating equipment, and trash/refuse are the responsibility of the vendor and will be removed from the assigned vendor space within one hour of the conclusion of the event.
10. Your booth must stay open and active until the parade.
11. You must supply your own power.
12. Hand-washing sinks will be provided in the restroom areas. There is no food washing allowed in these areas.
13. Vendors shall provide table(s), seating as needed (the event coordinator shall limit noise level at each vendor space).
14. The vending installation shall not exceed the vending space allocated as of the day of the event.
15. All vendors will conduct their business in conformance to established local and state laws applicable to their business (occupational tax registration, food service/health code requirements, etc.) and, if necessary, show proof of such conformance before being placed on the celebration grounds. You must comply, or you forfeit your right to vend. All donations are not refundable.
16. In the spirit of The Day of the Dead Celebration, vendors are required to fully participate in the event by: Promptly setting up and being ready to do business before the opening of the event, conducting sales with the highest accepted customer service practices, decorating vendor space, and staffing members with appropriate décor/dress.

17. All vehicles shall be totally vacated from the park grounds within two hours of the conclusion of the event.

Sponsored Spaces - The event coordinator has procured display and vending spaces for the exclusive use of our sponsors who have donated to the production to have their names, logos, and/or messages displayed. The sponsored spaces made available will be approximately 10'x20' and will be provided with a branded canopy tent, which shall remain the property of the sponsor. Sponsored canopy shall remain free of any posters, ribbons, etc. that may restrict the viewing of the sponsor's message, from all directions at all times.

In general, vendors are to conform to accepted business practices respecting the event, sponsors, organizers, and the City, County, and State regulations.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All participants are required to conduct themselves in accordance with the event code of conduct and to observe the celebration's rules and regulations. By accepting a position in the event, you agree to adhere to the preceding terms:

- Work as a team for the event to make a positive impact on the celebration's culture and overall success. Care and respect are paramount in working with celebration participants, colleagues, artists, and patrons.
- Positively promote the event. Never say or do anything to cause harm to the festival.
- Acknowledge the importance of our individual contributions to the total effort involved in providing a happy and comfortable, yet safe and structured environment.
- Adhere to Kansas state law and the festival's regulations regarding tobacco use and possession.

We have a zero-tolerance policy for anyone not following our guidelines. Anyone caught stealing or under the influence of drugs or alcohol will be turned over to law enforcement on-site at the event and prosecuted to the fullest extent.

CELEBRATION SAFETY

Festival safety is a critical component to the success of our event, and we request that all vending staff exercise concern and awareness for every attendee's well-being. CABA is committed to providing a safe environment for all participants, fans, volunteers, staff, artists, and any/all team members.

MEDICAL SERVICES-INDIVIDUAL ATTENDEE EMERGENCIES

In the event of someone needing immediate medical attention, find a staff person with a radio or notify the nearest security personnel. If you're not sure whether it's an emergency, assume it is and get help right away. Medical staff has a "no questions asked" policy; please assure the guest that they will not get in trouble for seeking help and try to make the guest feel as comfortable as possible. Please remember to remain with the guest until medical attention arrives.

GENERAL CRISIS PROCEDURES

In the event of a crisis, please encourage attendees to remain calm. Ensure that everyone around you is safe or can move calmly to a safe area. If there is an injured person(s), please seek security personnel, a member of the Fire Department, or someone with a radio, and ensure help is on the way. Remain with anyone requiring medical attention until help arrives. Remember the following guidelines during the crisis and as you seek to quickly communicate with security personnel or your supervisor.
